Altonah

Ethel Beebe

NONA MITCHELL WEDS STUART ALLRED DEC. 1

Of interest to their many friends in this area is the wedding of Miss Nona Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Mitchell, of Upalco and Stuart Allred, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dru Allred.

The ceremony took place at the Gordon Evans home, sister of the bride, in Granger on Saturday, Dec. 1. Bishop W. Wallace performed the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a pink nylon ballerina gwon with a corsage of white carnations and pink rose buds.

Mother of the bride wore an attractive pink afternoon dress, and the groom's mother wore a navy blue sheith. Both had corsages of tiny pink roses and white carnations.

Light refreshments were served to 35 relatives and close friends.

Both young people graduated from the Altamont High School with the class of 1956.

The young couple are both employed in Salt Lake City, where they are making their home.

L.D.S. STAKE PROGRAM PRESENTED ON DEC. 3..

A musical program was given in the Altonah ward hall Dec. 3. Different wards of the Moon Lake Stake took part, under the direction of Miss Helen Palm. All proceeds will go toward building a new church house in Altonah.

Glen Mohlman announced the numbers as follows: prayer by Bishop J. Arthur Timothy; solo, "Because of You," Mrs. Norman Hansen of Mt. Emmons; saxophone solo, "Saxophobia," by Pete Nyberg of Mtn. Home; a trio, "Singing the Blues," Corine Cook, Lorna Brotherson and Eva Swasey of Boneta; reading, Laura Carroll of Altonah; duet "Honolulu Moon" by Udell Winkler and Shanna Lee Winkler of Bluebell; quartet, "Little Brown Church In The Wildwood," Gail Anderson, Ellis Burton, Burton Teu and John Teu of Talmage; piano solo, "Waltz in C Minor," Bonnie Ann Ames of Altonah; chorus, "Tumbling Tumble Weeds" and "You Never Walk Alone," Gean Gilbert, Margaret Reay, Bonnie Ann Ames, Lawana Timothy, Norma Jessen, Ruth Dastrup and Varna Allred, accompanied by Carolyn Dastrup of Altonah; violin selection, "Vienna City of My Dreams," "Wanting You,, and "Blue Tango" by Helen Palm of Altonah; closing prayer, Claude Murray.

The Altonah ward Relief Society held its Theology and Testimony meeting Dec. 4 at the home of Mrs. Vernia Shiner. Class leader Belva Allred gave the lesson. In attendance were nine members.

Lloyd Snyder of Salt Lake City who was here visiting his mother a few days was taken to the Roosevelt Hospital Dec. 3 to be treated for high blood pressure and an infection. He was able to leave the hospital Wednesday.

Clarence Jones was operated on for hernia and an injured ankle in the Roosevelt Hospital Dec. 2. He is now at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman LaRose are the proud parents of a 7 lb. 4 oz. baby girl, born Dec. 4 in the Roosevelt Hospital.

Mrs. George Carroll and sons, Leon and Dean, spent the weekend of Nov. 30 to Dec. 2 visiting in Ogden and Salt Lake City.

Fenton Powell left for Salt Lake City Thursday to find employment.

Tuff Reay of Ioka spent a few days with his brother, Dean and family. Tuff is recovering from a hand injury received at the Essco Industries of Utah plant in Roosevelt Nov. 24.

George Mecham left Wednesday for California to spend the winter.

Mrs. Lee Jessen and granddaughter, Maxie Stevenson, accompanied Mrs. Minnie Lue Stevenson to Salt Lake City for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Melwood Wall took their baby son, Byron Lee, to the Duchesne Hospital Dec. 3 with bronchial Pneumonia. They brought him home Thursday.

SING AT P-TA MEETING

A large group of parents from here attended P-TA at Altamont Dec. 5 The Altonah chorus sang "Silver Bells." Those in the chorus are Margaret Reay, Verna Allred, Beth Jessen, Norma Jessen, La-Wana Timothy, Bonnie Ann Ames and Ruth Dastrup, with Carolyn Dastrup, accompanist.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones on Dec. 2 were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dunsmore and family and George Mecham.

Mr. and Mrs. Dru Allred and family and Cleo Clark, also Mr. and Mrs. Colin Nielson of Jensen, attended the wedding of Nona Mitchell and Stuart Allred in Salt Lake City Dec. 1.